Home Support Services

Our family... Caring for yours!

About Us

Maximum Home Support Services is a professional home support agency fully licensed by Western Health. We are locally owned and have been operating since 1992. Our agency is highly regarded and trusted by our clients, families and staff.

Our Services

Maximum Home Support Services ensures the services you request are customized to suit your specific needs. We offer:

- Respite care
- Personal care
- Household management assistance
- Behavioural support

Your family member could require any one or combination of these services!

Evaluations are free of charge and available upon request.

Our services can be contracted by the hour or around the clock.

Referrals are accepted from insurance companies, Department of Veteran's Affairs (DVA), and local hospitals as well as from private individuals and families.

Award Winning

Maximum is among the most trusted home care agencies in Newfoundland and Labrador, and has won numerous awards for excellence and commitment to continuous quality improvement.

Our Staff

Home Support Workers with Maximum undergo various security and medical screenings before hire, as outlined in the Provincial Home Support Program Operational Standards. Our workers are fully trained, bondable, and carefully chosen. They are experienced and compassionate in providing services to clients of all ages and abilities.

Our Home Support Workers are supervised by registered nurses and monitored continually for adherence to Health Board rules and regulations.

Our Home Support Workers provide information to family members immediately in the event of any changes to medical conditions.

Trusted, caring, professional!

Benefits of Home Support

Often, the recovery period or overall health of a person is significantly improved when living at home, in contrast to being in a hospital or nursing home.

Caring for someone at home dramatically reduces the possibility of infections, confusion, falls and other concerns that often occur in hospital or in long term care facilities.

Why choose Maximum?

Finding a home support agency that fits you is an important part of home care.

From the time you first decide to start home care, the team at Maximum supports you and your family!

We visit with you and your family to assess your needs and match our caregivers with you or your loved one to ensure compatibility.

We are always available with 24-hour on-call services and office hours from 8:30 – 4:30 pm Monday to Friday.

Our team at Maximum are experienced, compassionate and ready to serve you!
